

Y Project Activity	Cronograma
	MESES	SEP'16	OCT'16	NOV'16	DIC'16	ENE'17	FEB'17	MAR'17	ABR'17	MAY'17	JUN'17	JUL'17	AGO'17	SEP'17	OCT'17	NOV'17	DIC'17	ENE'18	FEB'18	MAR'18	ABR'18	MAY'18	JUN'18	JUL'18	AGO'18
A1. The team of teachers-tutors who will develop the project will be formed, as well as the coordinator of each country. The European general coordinator will be Spain (Dra. Gisela)
A2. The management of the School and the Educational Departments involved will be informed about the characteristics of the project and will agree to carry out its execution. The project will be integrated into the curriculum. The Faculty will be informed about the characteristics and format of the project and its execution will be approved. The School Council will be informed about the project and its execution will be agreed upon.
A3. Coordination of the Strategic Association will begin from the Department of Biology and Geology of IES José María de España. The coordinator and the European coordinator, Gisela Gisela, will establish permanent contact by email, WhatsApp, the official WEB of the association and the Facebook and eTwining page with the teachers of the Italian Institute, especially with its responsible, Patrizia Sgrò, with the coordinator of the center Greek Civitas Babilonia and with the French teacher responsible, Nathalie Subirats
A4. It will publish a press release on the project in the provincial, district and regional media
A5. It will select the participating students through the approved criteria, inform their families and request their conformity.
M1. 1st Transnational Coordination Meeting. It takes place in the IES José María de Vélez Rubio, Andalucía, Spain. It is attended by two responsible teachers from each country. (November 23 and 24, 2016).
A6. The official WEBSITE of the School Exchange will be created, "CUANDO LA TIERRA TEMBLA. (ESTAMOS PREPARADOS? UN PROYECTO PARA REFORZAR LAS COMPETENCIAS BÁSICAS Y TRANSVERSALES DE ESTUDIANTES EUROPEOS)" and the Facebook and eTwining (Twinspace) follow-up pages, called "CUANDO LA TIERRA TEMBLA", which will be updated periodically.
A7. Contact will be promoted among French, Italian, Greek and Spanish students through the most appropriate social networks: WhatsApp, the official WEB of the association and the Facebook and eTwining (Twinspace) pages.
A8. There will be 6 virtual work groups, each consisting of 5 students from two countries. Each group will have two teacher-tutors who will guide the research and the task entrusted.
C1. Mobility of the Spanish, French and Greek students to Istituto di Istruzione Superiore Enrico Fermi di Montecarcho, Campania (Italy). The mobility will take the form of a 10-day exchange (not counting travel days) where 5 students from each country will be staying with their host and Italian team member (March 7-16, 2017)
O1. Presentation of the products (Geneis, Protocol of action and Scientific Route on the area visited in Italy) in format of Digital Didactic notebooks and PowerPoints.
A11. The 6 groups present, in Spanish, French, Italian, Greek and English, the advances of the geological research work to which the second work will be added the design of a protocol of action and prevention before an earthquake or volcanic eruption, before the coordinator and the teachers-tutors of its center. It will be evaluated by competencies.
C2. Training, joint mobility of teachers. Workshops to update scientific knowledge on earthquakes and volcanoes. And reviewing action and prevention protocols in the EU. Coordinated by the Andalusian University Institute of Geophysics and Seismic Disaster Prevention (University of Granada, Spain) and IES José María. It will last 5 days excluding travel days and it will be attended by a teacher responsible for the ERASMUS + project in each country. (22-26 May 2017)
M2. 2nd Transnational Coordination Meeting. It takes place at the High School of Pelopio (Greece). Two professors responsible for the project in each country attend. (June 14 and 15, 2017)
A13. The 6 virtual working groups are re-formed. Virtual work is reactivated through FACEBOOK, the project WEB and the eTwining platform.
C3. Mobility of the Spanish, French and Italian students the High School of Pelopio (Greece). The mobility will take the form of a 10-day exchange where 5 students from each country will be accommodated with their host and Greek team member. (October 24 to November 2, 2017).
O2. Presentation of the products (Geneis, Protocol of action and Scientific Route on the area visited in Greece) in format of Digital Didactic notebooks and PowerPoints.
C4. Mobility of Spanish, Greek and French students to the Lycée Polyvalent de Pointe Noire on the island of Guadeloupe (France). The mobility will take the form of a 10-day exchange where 5 students from each country will be accommodated with their host and French work group partner. (29 November to 8 December 2017)
O3. Presentation of the products (Geneis, Protocol of action and Scientific Route on the area visited in France) in format of Digital Didactic notebooks and PowerPoints.
C5. Mobility of the French, Italian and Greek students to the Institute of Secondary Education Jose María of the Region of the Vêlez (Spain). The mobility will take the form of a 10-day exchange where 5 students from each country will be accommodated with their host and Spanish work group partner. (18-25 March 2018).
O4. Presentation of the products (Geneis, Protocol of action and Scientific Route on the area visited in Spain) in format of Digital Didactic notebooks and PowerPoints.
M3. 3rd Transnational Coordination Meeting. It takes place in the Istituto di Istruzione Superiore Enrico Fermi di Montecarcho, Campania (Italy). Two professors responsible for the project in each country attend. (28 and 29 May 2018).
END OF PROJECT. Overall assessment and final reports

* Types of project activity:

AM	PROJECT MANAGEMENT AND ACTIVITY DEVELOPMENT
PR	PRODUCTS
TM	TRANSNATIONAL PROJECT MEETINGS
LA	LEARNING ACTIVITIES / TEACHING / TRAINING
n	Activity number